

Are Injuries and Comp costs out of control?

Get help fast with Team Safety, Inc.'s "BLACK BELT" SAFETY CRISIS INTERVENTION

- Is your safety program compliant with federal and state OSHA requirements?
- Is your safety training effective?
- Do you have adequate safety systems in place?
- Are you focusing on the true cause of injury?
- Does your culture support high-performance safety?
- Are you proactive in case management?
- Are your supervisors accountable for safety performance?
- What are the barriers to better safety performance?
- Are you getting adequate return on your safety investment?

The answers to these questions are at the root cause of your workers comp costs. Team Safety, Inc.'s BLACK BELT safety intervention cuts through to the root cause of your safety crisis to provide a workable, clear-cut, corrective action plan to ultimately bring comp costs down.

This 3-day package is perfect for organizations that need to quickly repair their ailing safety program and get themselves on the road to recovery.

Includes comprehensive site assessment, executive management review, detailed corrective action plan, and 10 hours on-site application and/or training. Assessment is performed by a experienced Sr. Safety Consultants and all appropriate written and photo-documentation is included.

The basic fee is $3500. All reports are considered confidential for exclusive use of the organization.

For more information, Contact Team Safety, Inc.